About Győr

Győr is situated half way between Budapest and Vienna. This colorful town redolent of age abounds in architectural, cultural and natural treasures. The „city of rivers” – the Arrabona of the Romans, the seat of the 1000 years old Episcopate, where Napoleon won the battle in 1809 is a popular tourist city in view of the nice downtown and the beautiful baroque buildings. The radial road network of the settlement connects Slovakia from the north, Austria from the west, Lake Balaton from the south and Budapest from the east to the town, the heart of Kisalföld ("The Small Plains"). Thanks to the good geographical position of Győr you can explore the countryside which ensures a range of sights and experience for the tourists.

Győr expects the tourists with a wide range of services in sports and cultural programs. Győr, Hungary's third richest town in historic buildings outside Budapest and Sopron, abounds in museums and sights. In Győr you can find one of the largest fine art repertory in the 6 different buildings of the Rómer Flóris City Art Museum – www.artmuz.hu . In the Janos Xantus Museum there is a permanent exhibition: History of Győr and surrounding area from ancient times to the modern day.
